Exploring Expedition.

We understand that one of our prominent residents has submitted a plan to the Imperial Government for a complete exploration of this island. It is said to have been well received; but no conclusions had been arrived at in respect to putting the plan in operation at last advices. The plan was simply to form two exploring parties, and each party to be divided into two—a land and a water party; one exploring party to take the West Coast in one of Her Majesty's steamships, and the other, with one of H. M. gunboats, to pass up the east or Gulf of Georgia side of the island. Both exploring parties would be expected to commence work at the same time, on the same parallel, on opposite sides of the island. The water parties would survey the coasts, and the land parties work towards each other till they met in the centre of the island, so far as it may be practicable. Then when they met, go north ten, fifteen or twenty miles, as may be decided on, and both again start for the opposite coasts to meet the water parties. And thus, with intervals of ten or more miles apart, explore the whole island from north to south. In connection with each land party there would be a staff of naturalists, and some practical miners to prospect the country; and when the island had been explored, publish a full report, giving a thorough topographical description of the country.

The plan offered is evidently well calculated to effect the object to be attained; but whether the Imperial or local government will take measures to further it remains to be seen. One thing is very certain, the island should be explored, in order to know exactly what our resources are. A coast survey would make known the entire fishing, lumbering, agricultural and mineral resources of the coast; whilst the land party would make a corresponding report on the interior of the island. With reliable information such as a topographical survey would furnish, it would be one of the best settlers' guides to the Colony which it would be possible to provide for a considerable series of years. Besides, it would show at once to capitalists the localities where they could invest money in ship-building, lumbering, fishing, or in coal or copper mines.

We see no good reason why the Imperial Government should throw any obstacle in the way of organizing such an expedition. Some of Her Majesty's vessels on this station might be well employed on such a service. In fact, we think, the advantages nationally, scientifically, and for the Colony, would be far greater than anything they can do by floating in and out of Esquimalt harbor occasionally. If the Imperial Government would not bear the whole expense of interior exploration, there is not much doubt but the nautical coast survey, which is now going on at her expense could be effected at the same time. Or, if that were not possible, suitable vessels for the coast exploring fleet could be detailed for the service. With what aid could be obtained from the Imperial Government, a comparatively small appropriation from this Colony would effect the exploration of the entire island, in a shorter period, and more successfully than by almost any other mode we have heard broached.

Exploration is only one out of a number of measures indispensable to our progress, which are now engaging public attention; and we certainly know none more deserving of consideration. The general impression has been that with the exception of coal, or perhaps copper, our mineral resources were nil. The fact however of placers of gold being discovered in various places, and also gold-bearing quartz, shows that auriferous deposits are distributed over the whole island. In addition, silver ore of a very rich quality has been discovered. Practical men in connection with an exploring expedition would be likely to effect such discoveries as to set the question at rest whether our island is auriferous or argentiferous or both.

ORIGON MERCHANTS AND THE TRADES' LICENSE ACT.—On nearly every steamer that arrives from Portland, come one or more Oregon traders with a quantity of produce. This produce they are in the habit of vending in our market and have not as yet been compelled to take out trading licenses. Two or three weeks ago an up-country merchant happening in town purchased an entire invoice from one of these traders, who returned to Portland with the money in his pocket, and is expected back on the next steamer with a fresh stock. Every week for the past two months goods have been offered in the market by these same traders at a much less figure than our own merchants can dispose of the same articles and live. The reasons are obvious: The Victoria dealer has rent, clerk-hire, insurance, and a heavy license to pay; while the Oregonian has neither the one nor the other. As soon as the boat touches the dock he is to be found on Wharf street offering his goods greatly below the market rates, and is generally pretty certain to find a customer before the vessel is ready to discharge. Having secured his pay, back he goes to Portland, and the next ten days finds him on board again with very likely a much heavier supply. The evils resulting from the immunity from taxation (either or indirect) that he enjoys are manifold. He not only undersells the Victoria traders, but he breaks down the market, and thereby injures the bona fide merchant, and in a corresponding degree retards the progress of our town. In order to ascertain the amount of protection afforded our merchants, we have turned to the Trades' License Act, 1860, and find that any person using any business or occupation specified in the Act, without having taken out a license, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than £50, to be recovered in a summary way before any justice of the peace. The fact that the law has not been enforced towards the Oregon traders, shows that the authorities have not attended to their duty under the Act, and we now direct their attention to the growing evil. It is high time to check it; and the merchants themselves (if the authorities will not take the initiatory steps towards putting an end to the illegal traffic) should combine and enter a complaint against the first person detected in the act of violating the law. An example once made, there would be no occasion for future complaints in the same regard. So long as our merchants pay taxes for the privilege of trading, they should be protected, and no outsiders should be allowed to run in goods and take their customers away, without contributing a share towards the colonial revenue.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—The VICTORIA NEWS DEPOT, Government street, north of Yates street, receives by every steamer from San Francisco a large supply of newspapers and magazines, which are sold at the following established prices: American newspapers and Illustrated papers, 3 for 25 cents; English papers, 20 cents each; Harper's Magazine, Blackwood's Magazine, Chambers' Journal, All the Year Round, and the Magazines of Fashion, 25 cents each; Cornhill and Eclectic Magazines, 50 cents each. Parties residing in British Columbia or Washington Territory may have them sent to them regularly at the same prices by sending the cash with the order.

Later from the Sandwich Islands.

The barkentine Constitution, Capt. Foster, arrived yesterday afternoon in 19 days from the Sandwich Islands, bringing Honolulu dates to the 21st Feb. We are indebted to Messrs. Monsarrat & Co. and to Capt. Pike of the Board of Pilots for late papers. The Constitution was towed by the steamer Caledonia to Pease & Boyce's wharf last evening, where she discharged.

MEMORANDA.

Left Honolulu 22d of Feb.; first part passage, moderate and calm, middle part rough; made Cape Classet on the 14th inst., wind fair up the Straits; anchored outside at 11 o'clock last night (14th), making the passage in 19 days. Saw on the 28th, a vessel steering north-east, off Columbia River Bar.

PASSENGERS.

Richard Peters, H. M. Sawyer, H. Porter. The officers of H. M. S. Alert gave a ball on board the vessel on the 24th January. It was well attended, and was a pleasant affair.

The brig Agate had rescued two men from a guano island who had been stationed there by a San Francisco company six months before, which had neglected to send them supplies. They were nearly dead when taken off.

From the Marquesas Islands, the Advertiser has accounts of the burning of the dwelling of the Rev. J. Rapahaken by one of the natives.

The various tribes of natives on the Islands have commenced war upon each other, and fears are entertained at Honolulu for the safety of the missionaries there located.

A native of the South Sea Islands recently murdered a woman at Kapaa, and on being arrested, hanged himself in jail.

A new fire company, called Hawaiian Engine No. 4, has been formed at Honolulu.

SUPREME COURT.—John Jenkins, on behalf of the creditors of John T. Little, vs. Cusson & Little. Application on the part of plaintiff to make injunction restraining defendant Cusson from executing a judgment obtained against Little, perpetual. The plaintiff, through his counsel, Messrs. Cary and Peakes, argued that said John T. Little is a trader liable to make within the provisions of the law of bankruptcy; but inasmuch as there is no machinery competent for administering the proceedings in bankruptcy in this colony, it is impossible to protect the interests of his unsecured creditors otherwise than by the exercise of the provisions in equity. The assets properly administered on the ordinary principles of bankruptcy, would afford a large dividend to all of said Little's creditors; but if realized at a forced sale, would be still insufficient for the purpose. Messrs. Ring and Dennes, for the defendants, replied, and decision of the court was reserved till Monday next.

Greely vs Kraft, Johnston, and Macdonald.—This was a motion on behalf of defendant Kraft, to dissolve the injunction obtained by the plaintiff. Mr. Cary and Mr. Crease appeared for the plaintiff and defendant Macdonald, and Mr. Ring and Mr. Dennes for defendant Kraft. Mr. Ring opened the case for the defendant Kraft and had not concluded his argument when the Court rose and the further hearing was postponed till Tuesday next.

A ROW AT CITY WHARF.—Yesterday afternoon a difficulty occurred at City Wharf, between Attorney-General Cary and two men placed in charge by Mr. John T. Little, on his departure from the city a few days since. The former claimed that he was assaulted and a messenger was dispatched to the barracks, and Sergt. Blake and officer Taylor proceeded to the spot and arrested Mr. L.'s representatives. They were taken to the barracks, to which place they were followed by the Attorney General, who requested the officers to release them, as he did not wish to press the charge. They were liberated, and returned to their duty. As near as we can make out, it seems that Mr. Little returned to town yesterday, and a difficulty arose between himself and the lessor of the premises in regard to the possession of the same. Mr. Cary was called in to "pour oil on the troubled waters," but got into difficulty himself. Hence the alleged assault and subsequent arrest and liberation of the two keepers.

THE AMBITIOUS HANGMEN.—The two children of the Celestial Empire who aspired to the office of Colonial hangmen, and commenced to get their hands in by seizing the neck of one of their countrymen and attempting to stretch it, will come up for examination before the police judge this morning. The "subject" whom they chose for their operations is still in jail, and, strange to say, persists in keeping one of the ropes with which he was bound, still on his arm.

BEACON HILL.—Several parties have recently been engaged in cutting wood on the public reserve. Yesterday one of their number was summoned to appear before the police magistrate.

THE SHOULDER-STRIKING MARINE.—Was yesterday morning before Mr. Pemberton; but the man who suffered so severely by a blow from his fist, not being in attendance, he was remanded for three days.

FILLED UP.—Our notice yesterday morning of the nuisance at the corner of Douglas and Yates streets, caused it to be filled up during the day.

FOR THE RIVER.—The steamer Otter left yesterday morning for Fraser River, carrying 45 passengers and 189 tons of freight.

Arrival of the Caledonia.

The steamer Caledonia arrived from New Westminster about half-past 5 o'clock last evening. She brought 18 passengers, Ballou's Express, and $15,000 in gold dust.

Among the passengers we noticed Gov. Douglas. His Excellency, we learn, did not go above New Westminster.

The Emily Harris left New Westminster for this place at 12 o'clock on Thursday.

An effort is being made at Yale to change the name of the Little Cañon to that of "Lady Franklin's Pass"—a most inappropriate one, we should say.

Business generally continues to improve in all parts of the Colony.

The Robinson Dramatic Troupe are performing to good houses at New Westminster.

STEAM DIRECT.—Some few of our citizens met somewhere across James' Bay last evening, to concert a plan to establish steam communication direct with San Francisco.

Owing to the secrecy with which the movement was enveloped, and the meeting occurring out of town, the chief points learned, as the result of the evening's deliberations, were that it was desirable for our citizens to raise five hundred dollars per month for six months, and the Government would guarantee £2500 additional, as a subsidy to the steamer, the steamer fare to be reduced as a consideration. We learn that Messrs. Langley, Reinhart, and Vignolo, were named a committee to solicit subscriptions to make up the citizens quota and will call upon them to-day.

Whilst we wish success to any plan having for its object direct steam connection with San Francisco, we cannot but consider that the privacy in which the movement has so far been enveloped but tends to its injury rather than to promote it. A matter in which everybody is interested, and everybody expected to pay his quota, should court publicity; for the more enthusiasm can be created in its favor the better.

THE DEBTOR'S PRISON.—Rejoice! ye citizens of Victoria—is now vacant. The departure of Miller and Jones, who had so long kept each other company within its gloomy portals, has left it untenanted; and long may it remain so.

HEAVY FROST.—About two o'clock yesterday morning the weather suddenly became very cold. A thin skin of ice formed in the pools of water in the streets, and a heavy white frost was visible to early-risers.

J. A. McCrea will sell at 10 o'clock to-day, at his salesroom, 3 gold watches and a quantity of groceries, etc.

A. Stenhouse will sell by auction at 11 o'clock to-day, at the residence of Capt. Howard, Kane street, 2000 choice fruit trees.

Capt. Coffin of the Schr. Harriet, accused of beating Wm. C. Johnson, was yesterday morning discharged, the complainant not appearing.

The Jenny Ford yesterday morning commenced discharging her freight at St. Ours' wharf. The goods are in excellent condition.

A party of police and citizens will start to-day in search of Rowe, the missing surveyor.

There were 30 prisoners in jail yesterday morning.

The Navies of Great Britain and France contrasted.

Mr. Baxter, M. P. for Montrose, stated, in the course of a recent speech, that Great Britain has a larger number of persons employed in her royal navy than France has in her entire mercantile marine, both coasting and foreign. One of his constituents having asked Mr. Baxter to publish the statistics on which this assertion was based, the latter gave the following figures:

On the 1st of July, 1860, the total number of men and boys registered according to the French marine inscription was 156,384, classified as follows: 1. Officers, marines, et matelots, 85,539; 2. Novices et mousses, 42,883; 3. Ouvriers, &c., 19,159; 4. Mecaniciens, &c., 1702. Under the first head are ranked all sea-going men of all ages, including not only those employed in the foreign and coasting trade, but fishermen and also the sailors in the imperial navy, with the exception of that portion of them, about one-third, (or 10,000,) which are landmen taken from the military conscription. Under No. 3 are enumerated the boys and the landmen omitted from No. 1. No. 3 includes ship carpenters, sailmakers, and all sorts of laborers, whether employed in national dockyards or at private establishments, likewise boatmen who descend rivers so far as the tide water. No. 4 is for mechanics and firemen.

Proceeding to analyse these figures, Mr. Baxter says: If we deduct from the gross number of 156,000, 50,000 employed in the imperial navy, the same number of fishermen, 19,000 workmen, and 2,000 mechanics, there remain 75,000 actual sailors. In 1859 the French had 14,703 sailing vessels, with a tonnage of 970,936, and 324 steamers, with a tonnage of 50,000—in round numbers, a million tons of mercantile shipping. They reckon 8 men and boys to every 100 tons, although in Great Britain the proportion is very much less. The difference may be to some extent accounted for by their having very few large vessels, and by the fact that small ships have in proportion more hands; but I suspect those French writers who calculate upon a man or boy to every 2 tons, take into account the fishermen on the Newfoundland coast. But even granting that they do not, and giving the alarmists the full benefit of the doubt, 8 per cent. on a tonnage of a million only gives 80,000 persons; or, deducting the boys, about the same number of able-bodied men as M. de Mondy calculates upon—(between 55,000 and 60,000.) Well, then, we have this year, 84,000 persons, or 77,000 men and 7,000 boys, in our ships of war—a greater number than that in the entire mercantile service of France, computed according to any of the above methods. Nor must we forget that we have a reserve of 20,000, or perhaps more, in our coast-guard service and our volunteer naval reserve, and that the merchant shipping of France is steadily decreasing. It had in 1859, 42,000 tons less than it had in 1857; and, without a flourishing mercantile marine, there never can be a powerful naval reserve, or even a reliable navy.

The state of the case, then, is simply this. We have 77,000 able-bodied men in our royal navy, and 7,000 boys—84,000 in all; the French have 30,000. They have 60,000 able-bodied men, or 80,000 men in all, in their mercantile marine; we have 240,000, or thereabouts. Our sailors are increasing every day, theirs are on the decline. So it is to be hoped we may still sleep soundly, as far as dread of the naval resources of France is concerned. The most extraordinary misstatement is afloat, too with regard to the number of vessels in the French imperial navy. By the lists corrected up to April, 1859, (and every one knows that we, since then, have made much greater progress than our neighbors,) the French had 180 sailing vessels, with 2,920 guns; the British had 221 sailing vessels, with 8,275 guns—the difference in the proportions between the ships and guns being accounted for by the fact that the French have only 4 sailing three-deckers and 10 two-deckers left, whilst we have 43 sailing line-of-battle ships still in the navy. At the same period the French had 265 steam vessels of war, with 5,500 guns; the British had 530 steam vessels of war, (including 161 gunboats,) with 8,697 guns.

Government Tax on the Yale Saw-Mill. Editor BRITISH COLONIST:—Well knowing that you take great interest in all matters pertaining to the public good and the correction of abuses, I wish to inquire through the medium of your widely circulated sheet, why it is this tax is still exacted? when it is a well known fact that all other saw-mills in the colony "go scot free;" or, at all events, they have done so for the past year. Indeed, from the best information I can get, it is extremely doubtful if they have ever had to pay the first dime for cutting timber, while our mill-men were at first required to pay $600 per annum—thereby justifying them in charging a very high price for lumber; and latterly they have been paying $1 per thousand feet for all timber cut; and notwithstanding the great reduction in the price of lumber are still compelled to pay it.

Now, Mr. Editor, manifest justice would require one of two things, either that the tax be entirely abolished, or that other mills be placed on the same footing. Hoping for some light on the subject, I have to request that you give this a place in your columns.

Yale, B. C. March 8th, 1861.

COMMERCIAL.

FRIDAY EVENING, March 15, 1861.

During yesterday and to-day we have noticed no sale worthy of note, beyond that of 100 bbls. of Oregon Flour, mixed brands, at $4 75 per bbl., cash. Business in case goods has been lively, but the sales effected were small and unworthy of quotation. The steamer Caledonia arrived with remittances of gold dust, roughly estimated at from $12,000 to $15,000. The most of the goods sold by the river merchants was to canon boatmen, and until they have had sufficient time to make one or more successful trips to Lytton City, the receipts of treasure will not be large. It is generally believed that the mail steamer will arrive on Monday next from San Francisco; and the indications are that she will take down heavy orders and a considerable amount of treasure.

The barkentine Constitution arrived last evening, in 19 days from Honolulu, S. I., brings a quantity of live stock, some 85,000 lbs. sugar, mostly of the darker grades, and 3000 gallons of molasses.

There is no change in any article of everyday consumption since the date of our last issue.

Honolulu Markets.

In local trade very little has been done during the past two weeks, either in jobbing or by retail. In the latter branch there is a marked falling off. Island produce comes in steadily, though in no large quantities.

SUGAR.—From the Kaula plantations, and from Hilo, considerable quantities have been received. The demand is very limited, both for domestic consumption and export. Last advices from San Francisco show a heavy stock on hand there, which must influence the export demand here. We quote dark at 56¢; light, 70¢.

MOLASSES.—Sales at 22¢ a 23¢. A small quantity of inferior from one of the Chinese plantations sold at 19¢ for export.

LUMBER.—Since our last quotation, boards have advanced to 3¢, and scantling 2½¢, which is the present quotation. The stock is mostly in the hands of one dealer.

PELV.—Shipments are made wholly on owners' account. It may be quoted at 5¢.

COFFEE.—Supply exceeds the demand, with no inquiry.—Com. Adv. 14th Feb.

The Married Man.
He struts about all wreathed in smiles;
He grasps you tightly by the hand;
In fact, he's such a happy man,
That steadily he can't stand.
You wonder what has wrought the change—
What could have brought about his joy;
You ask, and with a rough eye
He whispers soft—"We've got a boy!"
FIVE YEARS LATER.
He walks along all draped in frowns,
He gruffly passes by his friends;
And every one who stops his course
He straitway to the devil sends.
You wonder what does all the man!
Inquire, and you'll discover—may be!
You ask—and learn in spiteful tones—
"We've got the fifth internal baby!"

PRECEPT AND PRACTICE.—A minister traveling where the road was difficult to find, requested a man by the wayside to direct him, naming the place where he wanted to go.
"Well," said the hedger and ditcher, "keep on just as you are going about a mile and a half; there at the cross-roads you will see a minister, who will direct you to the 1st of a couple of miles, and there at the fork of the road is another minister, who will direct you to the right about three miles, and so on at every fork and cross of the road is a minister, to tell you which road to take."
"Ah," said the parson, "what do you call ministers?"
"Why," said the other, "those things which stand up at the cross and forks of the road, with something like a band on them."
"Fingerboards, you mean," said the preacher; "why do you call them ministers?"
"Because they are always pointing the way to other people and never go themselves."

BRITISH REASONS FOR WEARING THE MUSTACHE.—A curious inquirer has been able to draw up a table of the different reasons for wearing a mustache. Having questioned not fewer than one thousand persons so adorned, their answers have helped him to the following result: To avoid shaving, 69; to avoid catching cold, 32; to hide their teeth, 5; to take away from a prominent nose, 5; to avoid being taken as an Englishman abroad, 7; because they are in the army, 6; because they are rifle volunteers, 221; because Prince Albert does it, 2; because it is artistic, 29; because they were singers, 3; because they travel, 17; because they have lived on the continent, 1; because the wife likes it, 8; because they have weak lungs, 5; because it acts as a respirator, 29; because it is healthy, 77; because the young ladies admire it, 471; because it is considered "the thing," 10; because his uncle did not, 1.—English Paper.

A Doctor was employed by a poor man to attend his wife, who was dangerously ill. The doctor threw out a hint that he had fears of not being paid.
"I have five pounds," said the man to the doctor, "and if you kill or cure you shall have them."
The woman died in the doctor's hands, and after a reasonable time he called for his five pounds. The man asked the doctor if he killed his wife?
"No."
"Did you cure?"
"No."
"Then," said the poor man, "you have no legal demand!"

A FACT FOR THE DEAN OF CARLISLE.—A young, quiet, sensible, good-looking country lass was asked by one of the sterner sex what she thought of "snuffing and smoking?"
"Well," she replied, "snuffing is abominable; but I would like a man to be a smoker."
"Why?" was immediately asked.
"Oh, because I see when my father comes home ever see cross, as sune as he gets the pipe lighted, and begins a blast he's a' pleased again."

Two citizens were lately comparing notes upon the merits of their respective spouses.
"Mine," said one, "would be a good wife if she were not so talkative."
"Talk at eve!" replied the other "why you are a happy fellow; my wife talks morning, noon, and night!"

MISERABLE PEOPLE.—Young ladies with new bonnets on rainy Sundays
A young smoking nephew, on a visit to an anti-smoking aunt.
A young doctor who has just cured his first patient and has no prospect of any other.

A newspaper writer, some years ago, in attempting to compliment Gen. Pillow as a "battle-scarred veteran," was made by the types to call him a "battle-scarred veteran." In the next issue the mistake was so far corrected as to style him a "battle-scarred veteran."

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT.—Derangement of the Stomach and Bowels.—In all cases of irregularities of the liver, the stomach and bowels, Holloway's celebrated Pills are a true specific. Dysentery, biliousness, acidity of the stomach, sick headache, debility, want of appetite, drowsiness, and incapacity for exertion will all pass off before a course of these pills, which purify the blood and give tone to the whole system. In external injuries such as burns, scalds, and bruises, and all skin diseases, the Ointment is wonderfully efficacious. Both the Pills and Ointment are composed of rare balsams, unaltered with a grain of mercury, or any deleterious substance. They can be used with safety by both sexes, at all ages, in any climate.

Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters.—No medicine has ever achieved a higher reputation. In every section of the country its merits are known and fully acknowledged. The leading physicians in the country have expressed their approval of this preparation, as uniting all the best qualities of a tonic and invigorator, without kindling an appetite for alcoholic liquors. In cases of diseases of the digestive organs, to which all uncleanly persons are subject, from necessity, exposed, as the poor cannot at all times be had, the Bitters will be found to be the quickest corrective and most reliable remedy yet discovered. Diarrhoea, Dysentery, and the various bilious and intermittent fevers all yield to the curative properties of this medicine. No person should be without the Bitters a single day.

Two Children Cured of Scrofula.
Dear Sirs: This is to certify that my two children have been afflicted with SCROFULA ULCERS. I tried your Blood and Liver Syrup, which cured them in a remarkably short time. My wife has been afflicted for many years with the most terrible skin disease—Tetter and Rheumatism—and has used a good many remedies, which have failed to cure her; this remedy has made a radical cure. If any one wants a medicine for purifying the blood, they will find the above named agent the best now in use.
JAMES G. MISENER, Formerly of the firm of Trainer & Misenor, Two doors below the Gibson House.
Scrofula's Blood and Liver Syrup is warranted not only to cure Scrofula, Tetter, and Rheumatism, but all humors of the system, such as sores and pimples on the skin, and all the diseases of the blood, and all cases of Weakness or Debility, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong, healthy tone to the system. For the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Nervous Diseases, Liver Complaints, Weakness, or Debility, Flatulency and Nausea, and all the diseases consequent upon a disordered state of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels, they are not equal. As an agreeable stomachic, they are much admired; they sharpen the appetite, brighten the intellect, and infuse new life and vigor. No one who uses these Bitters will suffer from a headache, or any other ailment.
Put up in Quart Bottles, in cases of one and two children, and for sale by Druggists, Grocers and Liquor Merchants everywhere.
GEO. W. SNELL, General Agent, 139 Washington street, San Francisco. m63 3m

Greeley's Bourbon Bitters.
THE POPULARITY OF THESE BITTERS is justly due to the purity of the materials of which they are prepared, and the delicate combination of simple alteratives and tonics so well calculated to act upon every part of the digestive system, and through them to reach and cure all complaints arising from a diseased condition of the Stomach and Bowels.
Greeley's Bourbon Whiskey Bitters are highly nourishing and fattening, and as a Tonic for all weak, delicate ladies, consumptive patients, and all weak persons, they cannot be surpassed. In all cases of Weakness or Debility, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong, healthy tone to the system. For the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Nervous Diseases, Liver Complaints, Weakness, or Debility, Flatulency and Nausea, and all the diseases consequent upon a disordered state of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels, they are not equal. As an agreeable stomachic, they are much admired; they sharpen the appetite, brighten the intellect, and infuse new life and vigor. No one who uses these Bitters will suffer from a headache, or any other ailment.
Put up in Quart Bottles, in cases of one and two children, and for sale by Druggists, Grocers and Liquor Merchants everywhere.

Health for a Shilling! Holloway's Pills.
Headaches, Bile, Loss of Appetite, and Lowness of Spirits.
These Pills require no interruption of business or pleasure; they act mildly on the bowels, strengthen the stomach, and promote a healthy action of the liver, whereby they purify the blood, cleanse the skin, brace the nerves, and invigorate the whole system. They effect a truly wonderful change in debilitated constitutions, as they create a healthy appetite, correct indigestion, remove bile, giddiness, headaches, and palpitation of the heart.
Weakness and Debility.
In cases of debility, languor, and nervousness generated by excess of any kind, whether mental or physical, the effect of these Pills is in the highest degree bracing, renovating and restorative. They drive from the system the morbid cause of disease, re-establish the digestion, regulate all the secretions, brace the nervous system, raise the patient's spirits, and bring back the frame to its pristine health and vigor. They increase the appetite, while they secure perfect digestion to all ordinary food, and release the invalid from restraint in diet.
A Word to Females.
There are two periods, especially in Woman's life, which require for safe passage, judgment and attention. Irregularity is apt at those critical times to take place, and to lay the foundation of future disease. These Pills, safe in action, and effective in result, should be taken at certain periods, and the issue will be marvellous both to the young and the middle aged. They prevent nervousness, hysteria, dropsy, and a host of similar serious disorders, by expelling all impurities from the system, therefore none should ever be without them.
Coughs, Colds, and Asthmas.
No medicine will cure colds so quickly as these Pills, when of long duration, or settled on the chest, or even though it has assumed the first stage of asthma, they may be relied on as a certain and never failing cure, particularly if the Ointment be well rubbed into the chest and throat night and morning. If this catch the eye of any asthmatic person, to be had as even not able to lie down in bed, let him well use these two preparations for only a week, and the result will be marvellous.
Blood to the Head—Diseases of the Heart.
More persons die suddenly from diseases of the heart than the unlearned suppose: in such complaints, the bowels should always be kept open, as good where there is a redundancy of blood to the head. These celebrated Pills purify the blood in an extraordinary manner, and should be taken in copious doses when such symptoms occur, taking care not to overload the stomach; by this means all danger is quickly averted.
Children's Complaints.
It is not generally known, but such is the fact, that children require medicine oftener than their parents. Three-fourths of the children die before they attain the age of eight years. Let mothers, then, be wise, and give to their children small doses of these invaluable Pills once or twice every week, in such quantity as may act gently upon the system twice in the twenty-four hours. For infants, a Pill may be crushed, and given in a little water. The great humors that are constantly floating about in the blood of children, the forerunners of so many complaints, will thus be expelled, and the lives of thousands saved and preserved to their parents.
Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following diseases:
Ague, Dropsy, Inflammation of the Liver, Bilious Complaints, Female Irregularities, Leucorrhoea, Piles, Rheumatism, Stomachic Disorders, Constipation of the Bowels, King's Evil, Debility, Sore Throat, Stone and Gravel, Secondary Syphilis, St. Vitus's Dance, Tetanus, Urinary Affections, Venereal Affections, and all other diseases arising from impure blood.
